Dear Ms. Smith,

I am completing a doctoral dissertation at Jefferson College of Graduate Studies entitled “INSERT TITLE HERE”. I am requesting permission to reprint in my thesis a series of figures from the following publication: NAME OF PUBLICATION, 2nd edition, H. Potter, ed. 2007; NAME OF PUBLISHING COMPANY. The figures are in chapter 13, found on page 698 (Fig. 13-1), and the second figure consists of row D in the plant III. The figures will be used only as background information for my doctoral dissertation, and full credit for the source of these figures will be given within the thesis. The requested permission extends to all future revisions of my dissertation, and to the prospective publication of my thesis by ProQuest. Your signing of this letter will confirm that your company owns the copyright to the above described material. If these arrangement meet your approval, please sign this letter where indicated below and return it to my in the enclosed envelope. Enclosed is a coy of a similar letter sent to the editor of this book. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Harry Potter, III
