http://connect.tjuh.org

If prompted at the top of screen to allow add-on to install, right-click to Run RAP software (via IE 8). Note: this may be a slightly different experience as there are different browsers being used, and different versions of browsers. Essentially, allow for RAP to extract the software it needs to authenticate your connection.

After the connection is made, then click Employee Self Service to access the PeopleSoft login screen.