THOMAS JEFFERSON UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF RADIATION ONCOLOGY

2014-15 ACCOMPLISHMENTS
(as of 12/31/2014)

Bold = Member of the Department of Radiation Oncology

PUBLICATIONS

ABSTRACTS ACCEPTED FOR PRESENTATION

12. Wright CM, Dan T, Liotta LA, Jin L, Pestell RG, Lim M, Dicker AP, Simone NL: MiR-21 knock out creates a radiosensitive phenotype and is therefore a potential therapeutic target. Oral Presentation, ASTRO 56th Annual Meeting, San Francisco, CA, September 14-17, 2014.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Radiation Oncology Residents:

- Joshua D. Palmer, M.D.: Thomas Jefferson University All-Star Award for Excellence in Clinical Care, July, 2014.

- Joshua D. Palmer, M.D.: Alpha Omega Alpha Post-graduate Award Winner in Clinical Research ($2,000), August, 2014.

- Kosj Yamoah, M.D., Ph.D.: Selected to participate in the AACR/ASCO Annual Methods in Clinical Cancer Research Workshop, Vail, Colorado, July 28 – August 1, 2014.

GRANTS:

Tu Dan, M.D.: Recipient of the 2014 ASTRO Residents/Fellows in Radiation Oncology Research Seed Grant Award, July, 2014.