the Eakins Legacy Fund

The Eakins Legacy Fund was created to guarantee that the proceeds from the sale of Thomas Eakins's The Gross Clinic will be used to support key initiatives of Thomas Jefferson University's strategic plan in perpetuity. Each year, a portion of the interest earned from the proceeds of the sale will fund endowed chairs for Jefferson's outstanding faculty and endowed scholarships for meritorious students.

Supporting Jefferson's Faculty and Students

One of the ways the income from the Eakins Legacy Fund will be used is to provide much-needed financial support for faculty and students. To encourage your investment in Jefferson's future, the fund will match your donation, dollar for dollar, essentially doubling your investment. In this way, your gift will honor the true "soul" of The Gross Clinic while supporting Jefferson's mission.

Maintaining and Attracting a Distinguished Faculty

We are committed to maintaining a dynamic faculty by attracting the country's best clinician-educators and researchers, while ensuring that our existing faculty remain at Jefferson. Endowed chairs are powerful tools for encouraging our current scholars and attracting new ones. It is our goal to increase threefold our endowments for faculty support, enabling our outstanding faculty base to grow even stronger. The Eakins Legacy Fund will match your gift to establish an endowed chair according to the following example:

Endowed Chair: $1,500,000
Donor Contribution: $750,000
Eakins Legacy Fund Match: $750,000

The fund will match your donation, dollar for dollar, essentially doubling your investment.

Scholarship Support

The sharply rising cost of a medical education contributes to a potentially dangerous shortfall of doctors and other healthcare professionals. To help reverse this trend, we will broaden our efforts to recruit the brightest, most committed students by providing much-needed financial assistance to those who may not otherwise be able to afford the opportunity. The Eakins Legacy Fund will increase the number of scholarships available to our students and match your gift to establish an endowed scholarship according to the following example:

Endowed Scholarship: $200,000
Donor Contribution: $100,000
Eakins Legacy Fund Match: $100,000
