

Constitution Day 2019 – East Falls Campus Celebration and Discussion

Event: Special Edition - Roxboro House Roundtable for Constitution Day 2019

Topic: First Amendment Vs. “America, Love it or Leave it”: What does the Constitution say about the U.S. President’s “Love it or Leave it” comments and the ability to express dissenting views?

The Roxboro House Roundtables are interdisciplinary discussions on any topic from health and science, to fashion, economics, and politics. These talks provide an opportunity for students, faculty and staff to explore and consider a variety of themes in the cozy, historical Roxboro House living room. Join us for discussion on a topic that interests you. Freely express your ideas learn new information and meet colleagues with similar interests.

Time: September 17th, 2019, 12:30pm-1:30pm

Location: East Falls Campus, Arlen Specter Center at the Roxboro House

Hosts: Evan Laine and Patrick Ryan

Please join us at the Arlen Specter Center at the Roxboro House on the East Falls campus or join us remotely to listen to this Constitution Day - Special Edition Roxboro Roundtable.