Dear new international student or scholar:

The Jefferson community welcomes you as a new member, bringing your perspectives to promote intercultural exchange while participating in your program.

The Office of International Affairs (OIA) is here to assist you in understanding the regulations pertaining to your immigration status, including maintenance of your status, and to help you transition to life in Philadelphia and at Thomas Jefferson University.

Whether you have already been living in the United States or are coming to Philadelphia from abroad, this Pre-Arrival Guide is designed to provide helpful information about settling into the city, learning about its resources, and preparing you to begin your program as quickly as possible.

Upon arrival at the campus, international students and scholars in F-1 or J-1 status must attend a mandatory orientation with someone in the Office of International Affairs and complete all clearance processes.

Please read this guide carefully before you begin your visa application process (if you need a visa) and before starting your onboarding steps. We hope that you have safe and easy travels to Philadelphia.

All staff at the Office of International Affairs can be reached at ويا@jefferson.edu.

Sincerely,

Office of International Affairs

Center City Campus

I. DESCRIPTION OF VISA CATEGORIES

The following visa categories for which this guide is intended are F-1 and J-1 status holders. The purpose of the visa is so you can enter the U.S. with the same intent that is permitted under that visa category. The Office of International Affairs (OIA) evaluates that the activity matches the specific visa category required.

The categories below are as defined by NAFSA: Association of International Educators:

F-1 Student

An F-1 student is a nonimmigrant who is pursuing a "full course of study" to achieve a specific educational or professional objective, at an academic institution in the United States that has been designated by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to offer courses of study to such students, and has been enrolled in SEVIS (the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System).

J-1 Exchange Visitor

The J Exchange Visitor category was developed to implement the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act (Fulbright-Hayes Act) of 1961. The overall purpose of that Act, and the objective of the Exchange Visitor category, is "to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries by means of educational and cultural exchanges.

II. HOW TO APPLY FOR A VISA

A. F-1 Student Visa

A visa is a stamp in your passport issued by American embassies and consulates which allows you to enter the United States. The expiration date is the date you are permitted to enter or re-enter the U.S. using that stamp.

Canadians do not have to apply for a visa but must still pay the SEVIS fee and enter the U.S. on F-1 status.*

1) Check if all information is correct on your I-20

Review all the information on your I-20 to ensure there are no misspellings or other mistakes on your documents. If everything is correct and accurate, you may use the I-20 to apply for a visa at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate nearest you. If corrections need to be made, please contact OIA.

2) Pay the $350 I-901 SEVIS Fee after receiving your I-20

- a) Go to the I-901 Fee website here and click "Pay I-901 Fee."
- b) Fill out the following page on personal information. This page requires the SEVIS identification number on the upper right-hand corner of the I-20 Form with an N and ten digits.
- c) The "School Code" on your I-20 for Center City programs is PHI214F00255000
- d) Check that the information is correct on all pages
- e) Print at least two copies of the receipt. You must bring the receipt with you to the visa interview AND when you travel to the U.S.

NOTE FOR STUDENTS FROM NIGERIA, GHANA, KENYA, OR CAMEROON:

Currently, the SEVP (Student and Exchange Visitor Program) system cannot accept credit card payments from persons from Nigeria, Ghana, Cameroon, or Kenya. If you are from one of these countries, you can pay the SEVIS fee by Western Union QuickPay or by regular mail. Instructions are provided on the ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) website here.

You do not need to pay the SEVIS fee if:

- You are transferring schools
- Extending your program
- You are applying for an F-2 dependent visa, or
- You have paid this fee and have been denied a visa within the last 12 months

For information to specific questions about the SEVIS fee, go to the FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions) on the ICE website here.

3) Find your local U.S. Consulate here and follow instructions to schedule an interview for an F-1 student visa. Visa appointment wait times can be viewed here.

New F-1 visa can be issued up to 365 days in advance of the start date for a course of study depending on the consulate. Be prepared to pay the visa application fee. You should also review the website for the specific consulate or embassy you will visit for the visa appointment for specific instructions and information about additional documents.

4) Complete the DS-160 Visa Application Process:

- a) Complete the visa application here
- b) Pay the visa application fee by following instructions on the U.S. Consulate's website

5) Prepare and take the following documents to your visa interview:

- a) A passport valid for at least six (6) months
- b) Form I-20 (on "Student Attestation," signed and dated)
- c) School acceptance letter
- d) Completed Visa Application Form DS-160
- e) Two photographs, 51mm x 51mm (2in x 2in) each, in the prescribed format (see website for measurements: travel.state.gov)
- f) A receipt for the visa application fee
- g) A receipt for proof of SEVIS fee payment
- h) Financial evidence that shows you have sufficient funds to cover your tuition and living expenses during the period you intend to study (ex. letter of award or scholarship, bank statement, proof of income, deposits in a U.S. bank)
- i) Information that proves that you will return to your home country after finishing your studies in the U.S. This may include proof of property, family, or other ties to your community
- j) Any other information listed on the U.S. Consulate's website

6) Interview for an F-1 Visa

Remember, the interview's purpose is to prove that your student visa is consistent with the reason you are going. Try to obtain the full name of the officer who interviewed you and their contact number. Additional points to remember when preparing for your interview can be found in section 2C of this guide.

After receiving your visa, go to the International Services Portal here, log in with your Campus Key and password, and submit your visa information and travel details in the Control Center.

Important Note: If your visa application is denied, before you leave the U.S. Embassy or Consulate, obtain a written explanation of why you were denied the visa and ask about re-application procedures.

7) Traveling to the U.S.

You are permitted to enter the U.S. 30 days before your program start date. See this guide's "Preparing to Travel" in section X for more information.

Once you book your flight to the U.S., go to the International Services Portal here to submit your flight information in the Control Center.

What to Expect from Customs and Border Entry

When you land in the United States, you must go through U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) with your valid immigration documents to gain admission. Please visit the Department of Homeland Security web page here for information on what to expect.

Important Note: Cell phone usage is generally not permitted in secondary inspection areas. Should you have issues at the Port of Entry, you should have the following numbers readily available to you: Minsoo Yoo, 215-503-8986 and Mia Song, 215-503-4024. Once you call, leave a message with your name, issue and phone number for us to call back. Should you not be able to call OIA directly, you have a right to request that the Border Officer call OIA.

B. J-1 Exchange Visitor Visa

A visa is a stamp in your passport issued by American embassies or consulates which allows you to enter the United States. The expiration date is the date you are permitted to enter or re-enter the U.S. using that stamp.

Canadians do not have to apply for a visa but must still pay the SEVIS fee and enter the U.S. on J-1 status.*

- 1) Review all the materials to ensure there are no misspellings or other mistakes on your documents. If everything is correct and accurate, you may use these documents to apply for a visa at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate nearest you. If corrections need to be made to your visa application materials, please contact oia@jefferson.edu.
- 2) Pay the I-901 SEVIS Fee of $220 after receiving your DS-2019
 - a) Go to the I-901 Fee website here and click "PAY I-901 Fee."
 - b) Fill out the following page with personal information. This page requires the SEVIS Identification Number on the DS-2019. This number is in the upper right-hand corner of the I-20, begins with an N, and has ten digits.
 - c) The "Program Number" on your DS-2019 is P-1-03534
 - d) Check that the information is correct on all pages.
 - e) Print at least two copies of the receipt. You must bring the receipt with you to the visa interview AND when you travel to the U.S.

NOTE FOR APPLICANTS FROM NIGERIA, GHANA, KENYA, OR CAMEROON:

Currently, the SEVP system cannot accept credit card payments from persons from Nigeria, Ghana, Cameroon, or Kenya. If you are from one of these countries, you can pay the SEVIS fee by Western Union QuickPay, or by regular mail. Instructions are provided on the ICE website here.

You do not need to pay the SEVIS fee if:

- You are transferring institutions
- Extending your program
- You are applying for a J-2 dependent visa, or
- You have paid this fee and have been denied a visa within the last 12 months

For information regarding specific questions about the SEVIS fee, go to the FAQs on ICE's website here.

- 3) Find your local U.S. Consulate here and follow instructions to schedule an interview for a J-1 Exchange Visitor visa.

Schedule an appointment with the U.S. Embassy or Consulate that has jurisdiction over your place of residence to apply for a J-1 Exchange Visitor visa. You should also review the website for the specific consulate or embassy you will visit for the visa appointment for specific instructions and information about additional documents.
- 4) Complete the DS-160 Visa Application Process:
 - a) Complete the visa application here

b) Pay the visa application fee by following instructions on the U.S. Consulate's website

5) Prepare and take the following documents to your visa interview:

- a) A passport valid for at least six (6) months
- b) Form DS-2019
- c) Proof of SEVIS fee payment
- d) A receipt for the visa application fee
- e) Completed DS-160, Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application Form
- f) Financial support documentation (e.g., job offer letter for postdocs)
- g) Invitation letter from the department at Thomas Jefferson University for scholar/researcher or program acceptance letter from the College for J-1 Student
- h) Information that proves that you will return to your home country after finishing your studies in the U.S.; this may include proof of property, family, or other ties to your community
- i) If applicable, marriage and birth certificates for dependents (spouse or any children). DS-2019s are required for any dependents who wish to join you. Contact ويا@jefferson.edu if you need to request these forms.
- j) Two photographs, 51mm x 51mm (2in x 2in) each, in the prescribed format (see the website here for measurements)

6) Interview for a J-1 Visa

Remember, the interview's purpose is to prove that your student visa is consistent with the reason you are going. Try to obtain the full name of the officer who interviewed you and their contact number. Additional points to remember when preparing for your interview can be found here.

After you receive your visa, go to the International Services Portal here and submit your visa information in the requests.

Important Note: If your visa application is denied, before you leave the U.S. Embassy or Consulate, obtain a written explanation of why you are denied the visa and ask about re-application procedures.

7) Traveling to the United States

Exchange Visitors are prohibited from entering the U.S. more than 30 days before the program start date identified in Item 3 of Form DS-2019, so plan your U.S. entry accordingly. Please contact ويا@jefferson.edu and your inviting department with your expected arrival date in Philadelphia. For more information regarding traveling in the U.S., check ICE's website here. We have also compiled the checklist to prepare for travel in the section here. Once you book your flight to the U.S., go to the International Services Portal here to submit the flight information in the requests.

What to expect at the Customs and Border port of entry

When you land in the United States, you must go through U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) with your valid immigration documents to gain admission. Please visit the Department of Homeland Security pages here for information on what to expect.

Important Note: Cell phone usage is generally not permitted in secondary inspection areas. Should you have issues at the Port of Entry, you should have the following numbers readily available to you: Minsoo Yoo, 215-503-8986 and Mia Song, 215-503-4024. Once you call, leave a message with your name, issue and phone number for us to call back. Should you not be able to call OIA directly, you have a right to request that the Border Officer call OIA.

C. Ten Points to Remember When Applying for a Non-Immigrant Visa¹

1) Ties to Your Home Country

Under U.S. law, all applicants for non-immigrant visas are viewed as intending immigrants until they can convince the consular officer that they are not. You must, therefore, be able to show that you have reasons for returning to your home country that are stronger than those for remaining in the United States. "Ties" to your home country are the things that bind you to your hometown, homeland, or current place of residence: job, family, financial prospects that you own or will inherit, investments, etc. If you are a prospective researcher, the interviewing officer may ask about your intentions or promises of future employment, family or other relationships, research objectives, long-range plans, and career prospects in your home country.

Each person's situation is different, and there is no magic explanation or single document, certificate, or letter that can guarantee visa issuance. If you have applied for the U.S. Diversity Green Card Lottery, you may be asked if you intend to immigrate. A simple answer would be that you applied for the lottery since it was available but not with a specific intent to immigrate. If you overstayed your authorized stay in the U.S. previously, be prepared to explain what happened clearly and concisely, with documentation if available.

We recommend that you bring a letter from your current institution stating you will return to your institution to complete your program or continue your employment.

2) English

Anticipate that the interview will be in English, not your native language. One suggestion is to practice English conversation with a native speaker before the interview, but do NOT prepare speeches!

3) Speak for Yourself

Do not bring parents or family members with you to the interview. The consular officer wants to interview you, not your family. A negative impression is created if you are not prepared to speak on your own behalf.

4) Know the Program and How It Fits Your Career Plans

If you cannot articulate why you will study/research/consult/observe/teach in a particular program in the United States, you may fail to convince the consular officer that you are indeed planning to engage in that program of activity rather than to immigrate. You should be able to explain how your research activity in the U.S. relates to your future professional career when you return home.

5) Be Brief

Because of the volume of applications received, all consular officers are under considerable time pressure to conduct a quick and efficient interview. They must decide on the impressions they form during the first minute of the interview. Consequently, what you say first and the initial impression you create are critical to your success. Keep your answers short and to the point.

6) Additional Documentation

It should be immediately clear to the consular officer what written documents you are presenting and what they signify. Interviews are usually brief and lengthy written explanations cannot be quickly read or evaluated.

7) Not All Countries are Equal

Applicants from countries suffering economic problems or countries where many researchers have remained in the United States as immigrants will have more difficulty getting visas. Statistically, applicants from those countries are more likely to be intending immigrants. They are also more likely to be asked about job opportunities at home after their research program in the United States.

8) Employment

You are only allowed to be employed in the U.S. for research related to your main program objective on your DS-2019. You must clearly articulate your plan to return home at the end of your program.

9) Dependents Remaining at Home

If your spouse and children remain behind in your country, be prepared to address how they will support themselves in your absence. This can be an especially tricky area if you are your family's primary income source. If the consular officer gains the impression that your family will need you to remit money from the United States to support them, your student visa application will certainly be denied. If your family does decide to join you later, it is helpful to have them apply at the same post where you applied for your visa.

10) Maintain a Positive Attitude

Do not engage the consular officer in an argument. If you are denied the visa, ask the officer for a list of documents they would suggest you bring to overcome the refusal and get the reason you were denied in writing.

Before applying for your non-immigrant visa at the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate, you are strongly advised to consult the U.S. Department of State website here to obtain the most up-to-date information about the application process.

II. F-1 PRE-ARRIVAL REQUIREMENTS

A. Immigration Orientation and Check-in

Pursuant to U.S. immigration regulations, the Office of International Affairs (OIA) at Jefferson is required to validate your arrival on campus. In addition to your college's program orientation, OIA will contact you by email with the date and time of your immigration check-in and orientation. This check-in is mandatory for your immigration record to be validated. Failure to report to OIA for this immigration check-in may result in losing your F-1 student status. Make sure you know the date and time of your orientation with OIA before your program start date.

To complete the check-in required by F-1 regulations, you must:

- Attend the F-1 orientation
- Update local, mailing, and foreign addresses in Banner Web
- Submit the Check-in Request in the Control Center of the International Services Portal
- Register full-time for the term

B. Immunizations

Everyone coming to Jefferson must undergo a health screening in the Jefferson Occupational Health Network for Employees & Students (JOHN) before starting their program. For more information, visit JOHN's website here. Please note that any incomplete or inaccurate documentation will delay your clearance. If you have any questions about immunization clearance, contact jeffuhs@jefferson.edu.

C. Student Health Insurance

As a Jefferson student, you must have Jefferson student health insurance for the duration of your academic program. If you want to waive Jefferson's insurance, your insurance must meet the minimum requirements to qualify for a waiver. For information on Jefferson's health insurance, go to the Office of Student Life & Engagement's website here.

II. J-1 PRE-ARRIVAL REQUIREMENTS

A. Orientation

All J-1 Exchange Visitors must attend International Affairs' mandatory orientation. Per regulations, an orientation for scholars and students is required to go over the regulations you must abide by as a J-1 Exchange Visitor. International Affairs will email you the date and time in advance.

J-1 Students must also attend their program orientation. This orientation is separate from OIA's and will discuss your program's academic information.

To complete the check-in required by J-1 regulations, you must:

- Attend OIA orientations, and
- Submit the following requests to the International Services Portal:
 - Visa Information
 - Flight Information
 - J-1 Exchange Visitor Check-In
 - Health Insurance Compliance

B. Immunizations

Everyone coming to Jefferson must undergo a health screening in the Jefferson Occupational Health Network for Employees & Students (JOHN) before the beginning of an assignment. For more information, visit JOHN's website here. Please note that any incomplete or inaccurate documentation will delay your clearance. If you have any questions about immunization clearance, contact jeffuhs@jefferson.edu.

C. J-1 Exchange Visitor Insurance

The U.S. Department of State requires all J-1 Exchange Visitors and their J-2 dependents to have insurance for the entire duration of their J program. Willful failure to maintain insurance requirements will result in the termination of your exchange visitor program. Minimum requirements for insurance coverage are found in [22 CFR 62.14].

Minimum requirements for J-1 program participation

- Medical benefits of at least $100,000 per accident or illness
- Repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,000
- Expenses associated with the medical evacuation of the exchange visitor to their home country in the amount of $50,000
- The deductible does not exceed $500 per accident or illness

Find the category below to learn how to meet the insurance requirement.

Category	Do I need to buy insurance?
<input type="checkbox"/> A scholar employed by Jefferson who will receive health benefits immediately	YES. Although Jefferson's health insurance benefits through Human Resources cover you after you sign up, you must purchase supplemental insurance to cover repatriation of remains and medical evacuation for the entire duration of your program.
<input type="checkbox"/> A scholar employed by Jefferson or Jefferson affiliations who will receive health benefits on the first day of the month following your employment start date.	YES. Jefferson's health insurance coverage starts on the 1 st of the month. If you do not start employment on the 1 st of the month, you will need to purchase insurance that meets all J-1 criteria until Jefferson's health insurance becomes effective. Make sure you sign up for Jefferson's health insurance benefits on time through Human Resources. From the time your Jefferson health insurance becomes effective, you must also ensure that you purchase supplemental insurance to cover repatriation of remains and medical evacuation for the entire duration of your program.
<input type="checkbox"/> A scholar employed by Jefferson affiliates who will receive health benefits	MAYBE. You must be sure that your health insurance starts at the start of your program. You may need to purchase separate medical evacuation/repatriation insurance covering the whole period of your program. Check with your insurance provider and/or employer to ensure all J-1 insurance criteria are covered.
<input type="checkbox"/> A scholar who is not employed by Jefferson or Jefferson affiliations	YES. Visit our website to see the list of insurance companies on J-1 insurance here .

<input type="checkbox"/> A full-time student at Jefferson	YES. All students are required to have health insurance. Jefferson student health insurance meets the minimum requirements for J-1 compliance. If you formally waive out of the Jefferson health insurance plan through the Office of Student Life and Engagement, you must ensure that your insurance meets the minimum J-1 requirements.

Additional Considerations When You Buy Insurance

- An insurance policy secured to meet the benefits requirements must be underwritten by an insurance corporation with an A.M. Best rating of "A-" or above, an Insurance Solvency International, Ltd. (ISI) rating of "A-I" or above, a Standard and Poor's Claims Paying Ability rating of "A-" or above, or a Weiss Research, Inc. rating of B+ or above.
- To avoid reimbursement issues for any medical costs with non-U.S. insurance plans, we strongly recommend that you enroll in an eligible insurance plan from a U.S. insurance company. Contact the health insurance provider should you have questions about their plan.
- Should you arrive earlier than your start date, we strongly recommend coverage starting from the day of your arrival.
- You must show proof of insurance at the check-in appointment with OIA

III. ACCOMMODATIONS

A. Short-Term Housing

There are no short-term housing options on campus, however, you can book hotels and short-term rentals.

Websites that can help you find short-term housing are:

- Airbnb.com
- Vrbo.com
- Hotels.com
- Apartments.com

B. Long-Term Housing

University Apartments

University apartments have year-long leases and offer various living space options. You can choose between studio, 1-bedroom, 2-bedroom, or 3-bedroom apartments. University apartment buildings include laundry rooms, professional front desk staff, 24-hour emergency services, and a residence life program. For more information, contact the Office of Housing and Residence Life here.

Off-Campus Housing

The Office of Housing and Residence Life provides off-campus housing postings online here.

Types of Off-Campus Housing

Rooms

Renting a room implies sharing common spaces (e.g., kitchen, bathroom, living room) with other residents.

Apartments

The number of rooms in the U.S. means the number of bedrooms. There are various apartment options in Philadelphia, from studios to multiple-bedroom apartments. A studio apartment has a bathroom and an open space that serves as a kitchen, bedroom, and living room.

Houses

Students or visiting professionals who come with their families may want to rent an entire house. You can locate houses for rent through the previously mentioned websites, real estate agents, or personal contacts with property owners or renters who are vacating a house.

Lease

A lease is a binding legal document between a tenant and property owner, describing the rights and responsibilities of each. Read the lease carefully to understand its duration, utilities included, and any restrictions. As a tenant, you are responsible and contractually obligated by this lease. You may need to contact gas, electric, or water companies to start service in your home.

When you sign a lease, you must usually pay a "security deposit," which typically equals one month's rent. The property owner will return the deposit within 30 days after you leave the apartment if you have paid all your rent, left the apartment and appliances clean and undamaged, and have not been evicted.

In addition to a security deposit, many property owners require payment of the first and last month's rent before you move in. Therefore, you should be prepared to pay up to three months' rent at the time you sign the lease. As a newcomer, you will not have a credit history in the United States. If you have a credit history in your home country, bring a copy of it with you. You may pay more for the deposit until you establish your credit history.

Philadelphia landlord-tenant law and the Philadelphia housing codes guarantee minimum living standards in rented rooms and apartments. Property owners are required to provide adequate winter heating and regular insect control. If you make any special agreements with the property owner concerning repairs or alterations, make sure those agreements are written into the lease, signed, and dated. (Many Americans consider it essential to have important agreements written down and signed.) You may find more details here.

C. Utilities

Once you have your housing, you may need to contact gas, electricity, and water services companies to turn on your utilities.

Philadelphia Gas Works, Check the nearest locations here, (215) 235-2050
PECO Energy, 2301 Market Street, (215) 841-4000, Check the website here.

The city of Philadelphia provides water, sewer, and trash removal service to Philadelphia residents.

Check water services here.

Check sewer services here. (This service is usually included in your water bill for Philadelphia)

Check trash removal services here. (This may not be necessary in some larger apartment buildings)

Talk to your property owner about utilities and trash removal requirements.

IV. TRANSPORTATION

A. Getting to Center City Philadelphia

Philadelphia International Airport is in the southeasternmost region of the city, 12.4 miles/19.9 km from Center City. You can get to Center City by rental car, public transportation, taxi, and limousine. Go to the Philadelphia International Airport's website here or call their 24-hour phone numbers for general information at 215-937-6800 or 215-937-6937.

If you are coming from another airport, check that airport's website for more information.

B. Commuter Services at Jefferson

Anyone with a Jefferson ID badge may be eligible for discounts on public transportation and parking your car on campus through the Commuter Services Office. Find more information on their website here. The office is at 1100 Walnut Street, Suite 102, Philadelphia, PA 19107.

C. Getting Around

Transportation Apps

You can download various transport apps onto your phone to help you navigate the greater Philadelphia region.

- Transit- provides real-time public transit data to determine the location of buses and trains
- Google Maps- helps you plan the fastest routes to a specified location for traveling by foot, car, or public transportation
- City Mapper- like Google Maps, helps you find the fastest route by combining bus, subway, train, and walking

Public Transportation

SEPTA

SEPTA is Philadelphia's local public transportation system that operates buses, subways, trolleys, and regional rail throughout the Philadelphia area. You can download the SEPTA app to view transportation schedules, stay updated on any delays, and check your SEPTA Key Card balance.

Buses, Subways, and Trolleys

You can acquire route maps at train stations or on SEPTA's website here. The base fare for buses, the subway, and the trolley is $2.50 (subject to increase), payable upon entry. It is $1 dollar extra if you need to transfer. An exact change is required. Monthly transpasses (bus, subway, or trolley) cover up to 240 rides for one month. If you use the SEPTA Key Card, it is $2.00 each way and the first transfer is free if it is within two hours.

Regional Rail

Trailpasses (train or regional rail) cover up to 240 rides on public transportation for one month. The cost varies depending on the destination.

SEPTA Key

SEPTA Key is a reusable card that can be used for the subway, bus or trolley, and regional rail. You can purchase SEPTA Key in subway stations at a Fare Kiosk. You can also view your electronic Travel Wallet Account at the kiosk to load/reload a fare onto your Key card, check your balance, and add a trailpass or transpass. Kiosks accept credit, debit, and cash.

The kiosk also sells a Quick Trip ticket, a single ride fare for customers without a Key Card.

Receive a discount for each ride by registering your card at the SEPTA Key website here. Once you create an account, you can choose to have your card automatically reloaded, view your balance, and look at your trip history.

PATCO Hi-Speed Line

This rapid transit system links Philadelphia with Southern New Jersey. The closest PATCO stations to Jefferson are at 8th & Market Street and 9th/10th & Locust Street. For more information, go to the PATCO website here.

D. Other Modes of Transportation

Driving

Individuals who possess a valid foreign driver's license from their country are authorized to drive in Pennsylvania for up to one year from their entry into the United States or upon expiration of their foreign license, whichever comes first. You may also use your international driving permits. Check out the DMV (Department of Motor Vehicles) website for more information here.

If you establish residency in a neighboring state, check the DMV website of the state in which you live.

Taxicabs

Taxi (or "cab") service is oftentimes more expensive here than in other countries. Taxis have meters that show the fare. Paying an additional 15 to 20 percent of the fare as a "tip" or gratuity is customary.

Ridesharing

The two most common ridesharing apps used in Philadelphia are Lyft and Uber. You will need a U.S. debit or credit card and a local U.S. number to book a ride. Both companies use individual contractors to pick up passengers and have options to rideshare or be the only passenger. It is a convenient way to get around the city if it is late at night or public transportation is not near and accessible to your destination. Check that the license plate and the driver's name are correct before getting in the car.

Bicycles

Bicycles are a convenient way to get around the city. The Bicycle Coalition of Greater Philadelphia is a resource for maps and other information on getting around by bike. Visit the website here.

Google Maps has a feature that allows you to find a bicycle route to your destination. You can access Google Maps either by app or website here.

If you do not own a bike, you can rent one through various Indego locations. Check the Indego website here.

V. COMMUNICATION SERVICES

A. Cell (Mobile) Phone

You can buy prepaid cell phone plans and pay monthly for the services you use, as most cell phone providers offer prepaid plans. You may also apply for a cell phone plan that has a contract. You do not need a social security number to get a cell phone in the U.S., however, your local carrier may require a higher deposit. There are various providers in this area (i.e., Verizon, AT&T, T-Mobile and H2O). If you need a SIM card, inquire with your local mobile phone carrier. If you are on payroll with Thomas Jefferson University, you may be eligible for employee discounts and benefits at mobile carriers.

B. Internet Access

All Jefferson buildings have internet access, and some have wireless access. If you are employed at Jefferson, you must speak with your department to get a campus key. If you are a student, you should have already received a campus key during the admissions process. Visitors can go to Thomas Jefferson University's Library at the Scott building to get temporary guest access. Should you need assistance with your wireless setup at Jefferson's Center City campus, please call the IS&T (Information Services & Technology) Service Desk at 215-503-7975. Some coffee shops, bookstores and public libraries offer wireless services for little or no fee if you have a laptop computer or a smartphone.

VI. MONEY MANAGEMENT

A. United States Currency

Paper Money

All U.S. paper money is in the same size and color. Denominations include $1 (often called “a buck”), $5, $10, $20, $50, and $100. Paper money for amounts larger than $100 is not usually seen in public circulation.

Coins

American coins come in two colors and four sizes. Smaller-sized coins are not always lower in value than larger coins.

Penny = 1 cent = $0.01

Nickel = 5 cents = $0.05

Dime = 10 cents = $0.10
(smallest U.S. coin)

Quarter = 25 cents = $0.25

B. Currency Exchange

Although you can exchange currency at the airport when you arrive to the U.S., they do not usually offer the best exchange rate. The website here will provide you with multiple suggestions on where you can exchange money in Philadelphia. We suggest calling various locations to confirm the day’s exchange rate and hours of operation.

We strongly recommend that you do not carry substantial amounts of cash with you or keep it at your home. Instead, deposit it in a bank.

C. Banks and Banking Services

Banks offer savings and checking accounts, safe deposit boxes, international currency exchanges, loans to qualified customers, and varying interest rates. When choosing a banking service, ensure that the federal government (FDIC) insures it. You can look up your bank here to confirm it is FDIC certified.

Opening a Bank Account

To open a bank account, you must show evidence of your legal immigration status and a local address in the United States. Some banks do not require a social security number to open an account, but you may need two forms of identification documents (I.D.). There are numerous banks near Jefferson. Many banks allow you to pay bills via the internet. Inquire at your bank if you are interested in this service. Check the banks near Jefferson here.

Automated Teller Machine (ATM)

The ATM is a device through which bank customers can make deposits or withdrawals at any time of the day, any day of the week, using a plastic card and a secret PIN (personal identification number). Instructions for operating the automatic teller are given on the machine itself. If there is a fee, you will be notified and allowed to cancel the transaction. Fees range from $1 to $3 per transaction. Debit cards may also be used to purchase items or pay for services.

ATMs are located at banks, supermarkets, shopping centers, and Jefferson's campus buildings.

VII. IDENTIFICATION DOCUMENTS

A. Jefferson ID Badge

Thomas Jefferson University visitors, students, and staff members receive a Jefferson ID card, which is required to enter buildings on campus.

B. Driver's License or State Photo ID Card

While a passport can be used as proof of identity, most Americans use a driver's license as an I.D. card. You can also apply for a Pennsylvania State ID card if you are not driving. For more information, click here. An international driver's license is valid for up to one year if it does not expire during that period.

C. Philadelphia (PHL) City ID

The PHL City ID is an alternative to a driver's license and provides a secure and affordable photo identification card for individuals living in Philadelphia. It is a quick and straightforward process and especially beneficial for those who do not prefer to always have their passport with them. Click here to learn more.

D. Social Security Number (SSN)

The Social Security Number is a tax identification number that is often used for many other purposes, such as applying for a driver's license or phone services. J-1 Exchange Visitors may only apply for an SSN two weeks after arrival in the U.S., and F-1 students may only apply once they obtain work within F-1 regulations, get a stipend, or receive a compensatory award. Information will be provided during your check-in at OIA.

VIII. SAFETY AND SECURITY

As Philadelphia is a large city, please be aware of your surroundings and secure your personal items. Avoid using outside ATMs, taking public transportation alone late at night, and walking in poorly lit areas.

In case of an emergency, dial 911.

911 is the emergency number used across the U.S. for immediate assistance in case of a fire, medical emergency, or any criminal activity.

Jefferson University Center City Campus provides campus security:

- Dial 811 from a campus phone or 215-955-8888 from a cell phone to connect you with campus police
- University Escort Service- This service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, if you need a walking escort on the University or Hospital campus.
- Blue-light E-phones- Pictured in the photo at the right, these phones are found in various locations on campus and connect you directly with campus security with the push of the button. You must speak when you push the button. Security will respond quickly.

For more information on different Philadelphia neighborhoods and safety, attend the Philadelphia Orientation hosted by our office. Contact uia@jefferson.edu for more details.

IX. WEATHER

Philadelphia experiences all four seasons, with temperatures ranging from 24°F (-4°C) in the winter (which may feel colder because of the wind) to 87°F (31°C) in the summer (which may feel hotter due to the humidity). To prepare for Philadelphia weather, please look at the table below.

	Summer (June-August)	Fall/Autumn (September-November)	Winter (December-February)	Spring (March-May)
Fahrenheit	67°-89°	42°-80°	28°-46°	37°-75°
Celsius	19°-31°	5°-26°	-2°-7°	2°-23°
Appropriate Clothing	Short-sleeved shirts and shorts	Long-sleeved shirts, sweaters, light coat	Winter coat, sweaters, scarves, boots.	Long-sleeved shirts and pants

X. PREPARING FOR TRAVEL

A. When to Travel

You are permitted to enter the U.S. 30 days before the start date on your I-20 or DS-2019.

Once you book your flight to the U.S., go to the International Services Portal here to submit your flight information.

B. Prepare in Advance

- 1) Contact your local bank and credit card companies to inform them of your travel plans.
- 2) Download pertinent maps and get Wi-Fi information ahead of time if your current cellphone plan does not support international cellphone usage.

C. Packing Checklist

Carry-on Items

Ensure any liquids brought in your carry-on are less than 3.4 ounces (100 milliliters or less) per item or it will be confiscated.

Documents

- Immigration documents (I-20, DS-2019, I-797 Notice of Approval)
- SEVIS fee receipt
- Valid passport (the expiration date should be at least six months after your date of travel)
- Valid visa
- Another picture form of identification (ex. driver's license)
- Travel Insurance
- In addition, if you are a student, bring your:
 - Acceptance letter
 - Proof of funding
- In addition, if you are an employee, bring your employment verification letter

Money

- As you may not be able to open a U.S. bank account immediately, you may need to bring at least two weeks' worth of cash in U.S. dollars.
- If you will be using a debit card, you may need to notify your bank before you travel overseas and find out about international ATM fees.
- You may need to notify your credit card company of international travel.

Address and contact number of accommodation and details on how to get there

For Checked Luggage

- ❑ Prepare for the weather conditions of Philadelphia by packing the appropriate clothing shoes. See the Weather section.
