

ARCHITECTURE HISTORY & THEORY

CREDITS 12

INTRODUCTION

This minor offers students the opportunity to study art/architectural history and theory beyond the introductory level. The courses listed provide in-depth knowledge and analysis of historical periods and theoretical issues relative to the meaning and practice of architecture and related disciplines.

COURSES

Required

ARCH 422 Issues in Contemporary Architecture (Prerequisite: ARCH 434)

Select three of the following

ARST 422 Issues in Contemporary Architecture (Prerequisite: AHST 305)

ARST 221 Issues in Contemporary Preservation

ARCH 320 Ecology and Making (Prerequisite: AHST 305)

ARST 341 American Architecture (Prerequisite: AHST 206)

ARST 410 Vernacular Architecture (Prerequisite: AHST 206)

ARST 302 Uncovering Past: Tools, Methods, Strategies (Prerequisite: AHST 206)

ARST 409 The Great American City (Prerequisite: AHST 206)

ARST 403 Restoration & Rehabilitation of Modernist Bldgs.

ARST 425 Meaning in Architectural Ornament (Prerequisite: AHST 206)

ARST 434 Water and Architecture (Prerequisite: AHST 206)

ARST 428 Restoration/Rehabilitation Interiors (Prerequisite: AHST 206)

PHTO 307 History of Photography (Prerequisite: WRIT 2xx)

ARST 471 Design Theory/Special Topics (Prerequisite: AHST 306)

LINK TO MINOR FORM:

<http://www.eastfalls.jefferson.edu/successcenter/inc/pdf/advising/DeclaringaMinor.pdf>