

DIVERSITY STUDIES

CREDITS 12

INTRODUCTION

The Diversity Studies minor allows students to expand their understanding of diversity issues in the context of U.S. society. The ability to recognize, value and navigate cultural diversity is vital for both 21st century careers and citizenship in the United States. The course options in the minor give students the opportunity to explore diversity issues from a variety of cultural perspectives and academic disciplines.

COURSES

Select four of the following

ADIV 200	American Social Justice	ADIV 212	Asian American Studies
ADIV 201	Defining American Voices	ADIV 213	Jewish American Studies
ADIV 202	Immigrant America	ADIV 214	Race in America
ADIV 203	Th. Jefferson in a Diverse	ADIV 215	Latin American Studies
ADIV 204	America	ADIV 216	LGBTQIA American Studies
ADIV 206	Red and Blue America	ADIV 217	Muslim American Studies
ADIV 211	Gender and Diversity in the	PSY 234	Cultural and Social Diversity
	U.S.
	African American Studies

NOTE: Courses taken to fulfill requirements in the Hallmarks Core cannot also be applied towards the minor. To have a Hallmarks Core course count towards the minor, students must take an additional course in that requirement category to fulfill the Hallmarks Core requirement (for example, students would need to take a second course in the American Diversity [ADIV] category if they wanted ADIV-202 to count towards the minor).

LINK TO MINOR FORM:

<http://www.eastfalls.jefferson.edu/successcenter/inc/pdf/advising/DeclaringaMinor.pdf>