

Photography

12 credits

This minor provides a foundation in photographic techniques, processes, history and theory. Coursework focuses upon photography: as a tool for the documentation, research and preservation of architecture, as part of visual culture in its application to commercial, fashion, advertising and product design, and as a medium for self-expression.

Required Courses

	Course Title	Prerequisites
POTO-101	Intro to Photography: Black and White	None
POTO-102	Intro to Photography: Digital	None
POTO-307	History of Photography	None

Choose one of the following: POTO-436, POTO-201, POTO-204, POTO-303, POTO-205

LINK TO MINOR FORM:

<http://www.eastfalls.jefferson.edu/successcenter/inc/pdf/advising/DeclaringaMinor.pdf>