Postdoctoral Travel Fellowship
Application Guidelines

The Dean's Office and the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs of the Jefferson College of Life Sciences (JCLS) are providing funds for a limited number of Postdoctoral Travel Fellowships. The Postdoctoral Travel Fellowships are used to partially defray the cost of attending a scientific meeting or symposium at which the postdoctoral fellow is making a presentation related to their current postdoctoral research or for a career/professional development opportunity, such as a course or workshop not available at Jefferson. Guidelines for submitting applications are as follows:

1. Only Jefferson postdoctoral fellows are eligible to apply. Fellows should be in at least the second year of a postdoctoral position at Jefferson by the time the meeting or course takes place.
2. Fellowships are used to help defray expenses related to the meeting or course's registration, transportation, lodging, and meal costs. A maximum of $1000 per successful application will be granted. Please note that additional funding from other sources may be necessary to cover the total costs of attendance. Postdocs are expected to apply for travel support from the conference or course, if available.
3. The Awards and Fellowships Committee of the JCLS Graduate Council will review all applications and make recommendations to Council. The JCLS Graduate Council renders the final decision regarding fellowships.
4. Applications may be submitted at any of three deadlines throughout the year: October 1, February 1, and June 1. Applications will not be considered nor will fellowships be made on a retroactive basis (i.e. for meetings or courses attended prior to the first of the month as noted below). Applicants will be informed of decisions by the first of the month following the application deadline. The below table should be consulted to determine eligibility for each application deadline. Applicants must keep these deadlines in mind when submitting applications to allow sufficient time for application review and processing, and when making arrangements to attend the planned meeting or course. Due to the high volume of applications received, there can be no guarantee of funding and thus alternate resources should be identified before travel commitments are made, as noted in Guideline #2.

| Application Deadline | Earliest Possible Start Date for Meeting/Course |
|-----------------------------|--|
| February 1                  | March 1  |
| June 1                      | July 1   |
| October 1                   | November 1   |

5. Postdoctoral fellows can receive only one fellowship during their time in a postdoctoral position at Jefferson.
6. Postdoctoral fellows whose applications were not selected may resubmit new applications in future fellowship cycles.
7. Successful applicants will need to provide documentation that the applicant's abstract has been accepted for presentation or participation prior to receipt of the fellowship.
8. Recognition of receipt of the JCLS Postdoctoral Travel Fellowship should be included in acknowledgements of poster or platform presentations.
9. The following information must be included in your application:
