

*The Jefferson College of Rehabilitation Sciences (JCRS) Center for Outcomes and Measurement Lecture Series
4th Monday of Each Month, 1:00 pm New York Time
<https://Jefferson.zoom.us/j/99266597420>*

The JCRS Center for Outcomes and Measurement hosts a lecture highlighting research and practice related to intervention outcomes, measurement and multidirectional knowledge translation. All are welcome.

- Sept. 27 Technology-Enhanced Patient-Centered Care for Brain Injury Rehabilitation: Methods and Measurement Issues of Therapy in the Patient's Natural Environment
Elliot Cole, PhD
President and Founder of Institute for Cognitive Prosthetics, Inc.
- Oct. 25 Translation and Linguistic Validation of Outcome Measures
David Himmelberger, MS
President and Founder of Health Outcomes Group
- Nov. 22 Refining instruments that measure attitudes, interests, and confidence of health professions students for working with persons experiencing homelessness
Susan Toth-Cohen, PhD, OTR/L
Professor and Director, Post-professional Occupational Therapy Doctoral Program, Department of Occupational Therapy
Faculty Lead, Virtual World Programs
Jefferson Center for Interprofessional Practice and Education
Richard W. Hass, PhD
Director of Assessment, Evaluation and Research
Jefferson Center for Interprofessional Practice and Education
Program Director, PhD in Population Health Science
Jefferson College of Population Health

If you would like to present your work or if you have any questions contact us:
CenterforOutcomesMeasurement@jefferson.edu