

- Thomas Jefferson University Bachelor of Landscape Architecture Program (BLA)

Thomas Jefferson University's Bachelor of Landscape Architecture Program (BLA) is accredited by the Landscape Architectural Accreditation Board (LAAB).

In the United States, registration boards require a degree from an accredited professional degree program as a prerequisite for licensure. The Landscape Architectural Accreditation Board (LAAB) is the sole agency authorized to accredit professional degree programs in landscape architecture offered by institutions with U.S. regional accreditation. As such, LAAB recognizes two types of degrees: the Bachelor of Landscape Architecture and the Master of Landscape Architecture. A program may be granted a six-year or two-year term of accreditation, depending on the extent of its conformance with established educational standards.
