

Population Health Pharmacy MS & Certificate

On Demand Information Session

Emily Hajjar, PharmD, BCPS, BCACP, BCGP

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
DIRECTOR, POPULATION HEALTH PHARMACY PROGRAM

Research & Clinical Interests:

Polypharmacy in the elderly
Medical cannabis

Emily.Hajjar@jefferson.edu

Jefferson

CREATE WHAT'S NEXT

Population Health Pharmacy focuses on:

- The impact of the distribution of health determinants on those receiving medication management services by pharmacists
- Strategies used to improve health outcomes associated with medication use
- 100% online coursework delivered in an asynchronous manner by experienced pharmacy and population health faculty
- Two, 7-week terms will be offered for the Fall, Spring, and Summer
- Students can begin the program in the Fall (September) or Spring (January) terms

Why Population Health Pharmacy

- Emerging focus in pharmacy
- Pharmacists are the most accessible healthcare professional and play an important role in improving health and wellness
- Population health skills are desired by the major employers of pharmacists

Masters

- 33 credits
 - Capstone project
- Can be completed in 2 years if full time or 5 years if part time
- 100% online

Graduate Certificate

- 15 credits
 - Credits can be used to progress to the full 33 credit MS degree
 - 100% online
-

Curriculum

- US Healthcare Organization and Delivery*
- Essentials of Population Health*
- Pharmacy Informatics and Healthcare Data Analytics*
- Pharmacy Benefit Design*
- Pharmacoepidemiology*
- Introduction to Healthcare Quality and Safety
- Health Policy: Analysis and Advocacy
- Evidence-Based Medicine and Care Pathway Development
- Applied Pharmacoeconomics
- Capstone Seminar
- Capstone

*Certificate courses

Jefferson

CREATE WHAT'S NEXT

Capstone Project

- The capstone project allows the learner to demonstrate the integration and application of programmatic content
 - Consists of a scholarly manuscript and presentation
 - Conducted under the guidance of a faculty advisor
 - Projects can be self-selected to ensure the topic is of interest or benefit to the learner and/or their institution
- Required only for the MS degree

Program Deadlines

Term	Deadline	Term Start
Spring	January 1 st	January
Fall	August 1 st	September

Admissions Requirement Checklist

- Pharmacy degree from an accredited school of Pharmacy or current enrollment in a Pharmacy-related program
- Completed application
- Official Transcripts from all college/schools attended
 - WES evaluation (if applicable)
- 2 letters of recommendation
 - Academic or professional
- Resume/CV
- Essay/Personal Statement
- <https://www.jefferson.edu/university/pharmacy/ms-in-population-health-pharmacy.html>

Office of Admissions

Devin Phillips, Admissions Counselor
dxs448@Jefferson.edu

Financial Aid

jefferson.edu/tuition-and-financial-aid.html
Email Address: Fiancial.Aid@Jefferson.edu

Jefferson
Thomas Jefferson University